

2005

2006

When put through to a member of staff the person identifies themselves immediately

When put through to a member of staff the person identifies themselves immediately

The College reception was staffed between the hours of 8.30am and 4.30pm

The College reception was staffed between the hours of 8.30am and 4.30pm

The College makes information about its services widely available to its customers

The College makes information about its services widely available to its customers

The College's services are easily accessible

The College's services are easily accessible

The Services provided by the College and access to them are affordable

The services provided by the College and access to them are affordable

Information is made available to everyone, including people with special needs

Information is made available to everyone including people with special needs

Communications received from the college are written in a format which is easily understood

Communications received from the College are written in a format which is easily understood

I feel actively involved in the Carmel Community

I feel actively involved in the Carmel Community

Overall I am satisfied with the service provided by Carmel College

Overall I am satisfied with the service provided by Carmel College

